

2015 Rapp Ranch Cutter Reserve

61% Petite Verdot | 23% Cabernet Sauvignon | 8% Malbec | 7% Merlot

296 cases produced

Aged 20 months in 100% French Oak (55% New, 45% used oak)

alcohol by volume 15.4%

"Driven by the uncommon varietal Petit Verdot, the 2015 vintage differs from previous years with Cabernet Sauvignon being the dominant second varietal showcased in the blend. Enticing aromas of sweet pipe tobacco, brown sugar and orange spice invite you to take a sip. A boldly structured palate provides flavors of boysenberry, raspberry, vanilla, cardamom, and plum. This big and showy wine has voluptuous tannins from start to the long lingering finish".

- Rudy Zuidema, Winemaker