“2018 was host to an idyllic Summer and mild Fall temperatures allowing for the fruit to have a long hang time on the vine and develop deep, rich flavor profiles. The 2018 Shadybrook Estate Petit Verdot was harvested in early November and quickly became a shining star in the cellar from this vintage. Starting in your glass with an opaque ruby-black color, moving into a magenta rim, this wine leads with aromas of dark fruits, such as blueberry and blackberry; mixed with notes of rose petal, black licorice, tea leaf and mint. A touch of stony minerality showcases the cooler climate of Coombsville. The palate is velvety bursting with flavors of raspberry compote, dark black cherry, cocoa powder and maple cream. Beautifully balanced, the smooth round tannins and bright acidity combine to create a soft yet voluptuous mouthfeel and extend the flavors into a long persistent finish.”
